In all cases it will be required for persons exhibiting articles for competition, to have them accompanied with a certificate that the article has been manufactured during the past year, and that all articles, the products of the soil have been raised on the farm of the exhibitor.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

11. The judges on stock, if not satisfied the entries are made in their proper classes or numbers, shall pass such stock unnoticed until they report the fact to the Marshal or Su-

1. Life members and share-holders of this Society, and all others who shall pay one dollar into the Treasury, will be furnished with a family ticket, not transferable, which will entitle the head of the family, with their carriage, and all the children of the family under ten years of age, to admission to the Fair Grounds during the continuance of the exhibition.

2. Stock and articles must be entered by the BONA-FIDE owners, or agent; and grain, fruit, vegetables, dairy products and domestic manufactures must have been raised and made by the exhibitors thereof.

3. All stock exhibited must be owned and held in the County by the person exhibiting the same, and all other articles must have been raised, made or finished since the last Annual Fair—or cannot be entitled to a premium, and no animal or article can compete but for a single premium.

4. Premiums will not be paid on animals or articles of inferior merit, although there may be no competition.

5. No person shall act as a judge for awarding premiums for which he is in any way a competitor, but shall withdraw from said class.

6. Any person who shall knowingly violate the Society's regulations, or who shall seek to obtain a premium by false pretenses or by improper interference with the judges, shall be excluded from competition.

7. The several Committees and Superintendents are requested to attend at the Secretary's office at 10 o'clock A. M., of the second day of the Fair, where their names will be called, and to make reports fully and plainly written in order to avoid errors in awarding premiums, and also to complete their examinations and deliver their reports complete to the Secretary, at his office on the Grounds, before the close of the second day of the Fair.

8. Premiums awarded and not called for at or before the annual meeting in January, will be considered as a donation to the Society.

9. Articles or animals removed from the Grounds before the close of the Fair or Exhibition (except by permission of the President or Secretary), cannot receive a premium, though awarded by the judges.

10. All articles or stock entered for competition must be entered on or before 6 o'clock P. perintendent, whose duty it shall be to forthwith give such directions as the circumstances of the case may require.

12. The award of premiums will be made at 11 o'clock A. M., of the third day of the Fair, and the Treasurer will pay them at his business office on and after the second Monday succeeding the close of the Fair. Bills to be payable at the same time, but no bill to be paid by the Treasurer till audited by the Executive Committee.

13. The judges are particularly requested in making their awards to take into consideration the greatest return from the least expense. Over-feeding in stock, except fat stock, or over-manuring on land, should be taken into account by them in making the awards, and when an award is made it shall not be altered.

14. The President and Vice-President will, in all cases, when any of the judges are absent, be authorized to fill vacancies.

15. Owners of all articles on exhibition must take charge of the same at the close of the Fair.

16. Judges will be particular to notice and report any articles or animals of rare merit not enumerated in the List of Premiums; also any article or animal of like merit, owned out of the County, that suitable awards may be made by the Executive Committee.

Merchants wishing to make a display of their goods and wares will have every facility afforded for their accommodation without charge, by reporting to the Superintendents.

Proper Superintendents will be selected to assist exhibitors in arranging and classifying articles and animals for exhibition, and have the oversight and charge of the same, and be prepared to show the judges all animals or articles in their respective departments.

The Exhibition Building is eighty feet long by fifty feet wide, in which exhibitors can deposit articles in safety, without injury from rain or exposure to the sun.

The Fair Grounds have been enlarged and much improved, the track has been enlarged and graded, and much pains have been taken to render the approaching exhibition the most complete and satisfactory one ever given by the Society.

Closed sheds and stables are provided on the Grounds for the shelter and protection of the stock. Hay and straw will be provided by the Society, gratis, and feed will be kept on the ground, for sale, to those who may wish it for their stock. The above arrangement, together with the use of a convenient well of water, will render the removal of the stock from the ground unnecessary. Good and competent watchmen will have charge of the Grounds at night.

Entries may be made at the Secretary's office, 33 Wall Street, Kingston, N. Y., after the 12th day of September, until first day of Fair, which will be devoted to the entries of articles and stock, and classifying and arranging the same under their proper heads and in their proper places. All articles and stock for competition must be entered by six o'clock P. M., (except for special premiums, which must be entered half an hour before they compete.

A. GOODRICH,

SEWING MACHINES & PIANOS.

Sewing Machines.

The hurly-burly of the Sewing-Machine war is ended. Various manufacturers have paraded their machines before the public, with a great flourish of trumpets and waving of banners. In their eagerness to effect sales, the different agents resorted to all sorts of trickery to trap the unwary, and hundreds of farmers' wives, and farmers themselves, in this county, had forced upon them worthless machines in an unguarded moment. You, who have not yet made up your minds which to buy of the many machines offered, we advise to carefully examine into the merits of the "Domestic." Independent of its many good qualities, (and we believe it to be the best in the world) it is in the hands of a gentleman here, well known to thousands of our readers, who would not knowingly make false representations.—We feel justified in saying that we believe A. Goodrich fully satisfied himself, before taking the agency of the "Domestic," that it was perfect in all its parts, and that he could unhesitatingly recommend it to all.

THE DAILY FREEMAN.

CITY OF KINGSTON, (RONDOUT.)

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 15, 1872.

Let Grant Withdraw.

The Grant Republicans have evidently been very obtuse in their observations of public sentiment. In nothing have they been more at sea than in measuring the number of those who would be and are disaffected by the nomination of Grant.—They are pleased to call them all soreheads, and doubtless take some satisfaction in doing so, but after all it does them but little good politically. The current is from Grant, and all this epithet-slinging doesn't bring back a single voter upon whom he had to rely for support if he had any hope of success.

We daily hear many Republicans express their regret that Grant was nominated, although they intended voting for him because of their association with the Republican party.—Did they ever seriously ask themselves what the Republican party could possibly profit by his successful candidacy?

The burden of the cry against Mr. Greeley is, not that he is not a Republican, (for he has always been one and he told the Democratic Convention officers on Friday that he was still one), but that he will receive so large a measure of his support from Democrats that they must control his administration to a large degree. It is conceded that Grant cannot be elected without Democratic votes.—If Mr. Greeley has to pay for his votes by concessions of power to the Democracy, so will Grant. His administration will go into power, if he be reelected, under obligations to Democrats, differing in degree only from Mr. Greeley's. Now in this crusade by Gen. Grant against the Republican party, the party has voluntarily taken the position that it would rather have Democratic votes than Republican. If the existence of the Republican party is the sole thing to be considered, isn't it worth while to note the fact that it is between a Democratic head and a Democratic tail, in its nominee and in the support necessary to its success? If in four years Grant has succeeded in splitting off a large third of the party that elected him rather than let the Democrats do it, how long will it take him to drive off the balance?

If there be fear on the part of Republicans of Democratic control, let them support Horace Greeley, who has been a Republican for some time. If the danger lies in Greeley's getting a larger proportion of Democratic than Republican votes, then make the Republican share of his votes the largest and the danger vanishes. There is no necessity of Grant's running; the Democrats are willing to vote for Horace, and Republicans can't find a better man.—Let Grant withdraw, and the Republican National Committee nominate Greeley, and the country will have an era of good feeling second only to that of Monroe's administration.

Demand and Supply.

It is the fundamental principle of the law of supply and demand that a demand for an article will generally produce it. We are not surprised to learn then that idols for the Indian market are advertised by New York manufacturers. They are made of all sorts and very cheap, and beat anything in the market. This is a feather in the cap of American enterprise, although it arouses very odd thoughts that the same ship may perhaps carry over both idols and missionaries.

There will be a great demand for rebellion and Ku-Klux for the next four months. It will be necessary, in order for the Grant party to carry this election, that the people of the North should believe that rebellion and KuKlux are rank in every Southern state. It may not be considered creditable to the administration that it has spent three out of seven years with so little result, but the demand will pretty surely be supplied. If it be necessary to carry the state of Ohio that KuKlux should devastate Florida, the Everglades will be full of them. We doubt not that the Grant organs will be able to get up as big a rebellion on paper before November, as that which bankrupted the South before. There is no doubt about the demand, nor will there be about the supply, else the right hand of the special correspondent hath lost its cunning.

Where the Blame Lies.

It is now a year ago since the Republican State Committee ordered a reconstruction of the party in New York city. As the organization was then constituted, the custom-house Republicans had no right to control the primaries, hence Thomas Murphey, Collector of the port, concocted the scheme of ordering a new organization. He knew the control of the party machinery of the metropolis was altogether necessary to secure the delegation of the State to the National Convention for Grant, hence had no scruples about the means to accomplish his end.

The only opening was to get the State Committee to declare the old organization void, and order a new election. It was plain that this, on their part, would be an assumption of power wholly at variance with the usages of parties, and of equity. If the Committee could overthrow the party in one place, they could in another. If they had a right to vacate the places of the New York Committee-men, they could do likewise in any other locality. The admission of this right would have established party despotism. Nevertheless, it was done. The immediate effect was an earnest protest, from old and tried partisans, while they gave a hearty support to the ticket nominated by the Convention. That conduct of the New York State Committee, with the subsequent action of the State Convention, was the hair that broke the camel's back. Politicians forced a bolt through love of manhood. A party having been habituated to governing States by arbitrary authority, attempted to control its own organization by the same course. History will record that as the greatest act of folly ever committed by a set of politicians, and write the protest of Liberal Republicans as a shining light to their children.

Mr. Fiero Defines His Position.

HON. WM. S. KENYON, Chairman Republican Central Committee of Ulster County.

SIR: Having been appointed a member of the Liberal Republican Central Committee, and being fully committed to the Cincinnati Platform and candidates, I herewith tender my resignation as a member of the Committee over which you preside.

Yours very truly,
J. NEWTON FIERO.

Dated Kingston, July 13, 1872.

The above answers some remarks of the Press and others, on the signatures to the Liberal Republican Address.

POLITICAL NOTES.

J. N. Fiero, Esq., addressed a Greeley ratification meeting at Delhi, on Wednesday last.

Gov. Hawley's paper, the Hartford Courant thinks the situation is very critical for the Grant party.

A Greeley club has been formed in Rhinebeck. Our reporter was shown a list of 32 Republican members.

Mr. Sumner says the time has not come for him to speak, although his sympathies seem to be entirely with Greeley.

"Bill, do you go for Horace Greeley?" "Horace Greeley be d——d, subject to the decision of the Baltimore Convention."

We say it boldly, this promises to be the funniest, most interesting, curious, complicated, lively, and blessed Presidential canvass ever known.—The Sun.

One of the charges against Judge McCunn was that he had appointed relatives to office,—made receivers of them. How far this is analogous to President Grant's operations does not appear.

Greeley's speeches are getting to be the most enjoyable feature of the campaign, as Grant's are the dullest. Greeley has certainly had more nominations for the Presidency than ever before in his life.

It now transpires that Baron Gerolt, the Prussian Minister, resigned because of insults received from Bancroft Davis, and lies told by him to Minister Bancroft, which the latter repeated as truth to Bismarck.

Fifty Republicans of the town of Delhi, Delaware County, have united in a call for a Greeley and Brown meeting on the 18th of July. Among them are Judge Murray, Wm. Gleason, and other men of prominence.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

France's war debt is reported at $600,000.

A California jury recently declared a suicide a fool.

Judge McCunn died worth a million and a half of dollars.

A Milwaukee street boy won a $10,000 opera-house on the Fourth.

Kansas City gamblers have to pay a monthly fine of seventy-five dollars.

California maples are being killed by industrious insects with shells on their backs.

A Western farmer sowed ants in his potato field, and thereby exterminated the bug.

The St. Louis Saengerfest was a financial failure to the amount of sixteen thousand dollars.

Budd Doble has just had a new horse palace car put on the Pennsylvania Central for his trotters.

Tom Thumb will publish a book of his travels. It will be a fit companion to Gulliver's travels.

A misguided woman at Plano, Ill., took corrosive sublimate for gin with fatal effect a few days since.

White veils will be fashionable shortly.—They are made of tulle, plain white or white dotted with black.

President Thiers is pressing another tax levy scheme, and a crisis in the French government is imminent.

A Mobile negress is sueing that city for five thousand dollars as the price of her husband killed in the last riot in that city.

John Bright said in his last speech that the House of Lords seemed to be almost the last refuge of political ignorance and fashion.

A Buckeye oracle is to inflict upon an unbelieving world a "History of the Declension and Prospective Fall of the Great Republic of the United States."

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The Paris Liberte says: "Who will say hereafter that the United States will take the place of France as the first silk manufacturers of the world? To prove the contrary we cite the following fact: Miss Grant, daughter of the President of the United States, during her recent stay in Paris, purchased in one shop alone silks and laces valued at 40,000 francs ($8,000). The Empress of Austria and her court also purchase their silks and laces in Paris."

According to James Parton, some of the evils of the present day are not as new as has been supposed by many. When Blennerhasset arrived here at the close of the last century he found bulls and bears and corners and selling short and rings and other devices, though not known by the name of the present day, and dealing in land and water fronts. One enterprising merchant, on reading of a fatal epidemic in the West Indies, sent out a cargo of coffins, in nests, one within the other, and that no room should be lost, filled the smallest with ginger-bread.

The wife of Dan Rice has gone over to the enemy by joining Blackenstoe's opposition circus. Both circuses were in the same vicinity the other day, Rice's at Dubuque, and the other at McGregor. At the instigation of the wife of Rice a party of Blackenstoe's company made a raid upon the other party. For a while there was a scene of bloody riot that beggars description, and would have ended in loss of life, had not the authorities of McGregor interfered and put a top to it. As it was, broken noses, bunged and blackened eyes and swollen mouths abounded on both sides. "Hell knows no fury like a woman scorned," &c.

Associated Press Dispatches.

BY TELEGRAPH TO DAILY FREEMAN.

FRANCE.

PARIS, July 14.

To-day the anniversary of the taking of the Bastile was celebrated at Ferte Sous Jonarre, with a banquet. Gambetta presided, and made a characteristic speech, in which he denounced the league of the church and monarchy. Public dinners in honor of the day were prohibited in Paris, Lyons, Marseilles, Nimes, Bordeaux, Rouen, and Lille, but no attempt was made to interfere with the celebration at Ferte Sous Jonarre.

THE HAVRE REGATTA.

HAVRE, France, July 13.

The Havre regatta took place yesterday.—Twelve boats started. 20 hours was the time allotted for the race. It was expected that the Guinevere, Livonia, and Sappho would sail, but the Guinevere was withdrawn, and consequently the Sappho was withdrawn also, because the Livonia was the only large schooner entered, and Mr. Douglas would not sail with Ashbury as the only competitor.

The boat started at 4 o'clock; the Sappho started fifteen minutes afterwards, ran to leeward of the fleet, crossing the bow of the Livonia, and returned to her anchorage an hour and a half ahead of her.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, July 14.

The German riflemen from America, who are to participate in the Federal Schutzenfest, arrived last week in Hanover, where they had a most cordial reception. Dr. Pieper made an address of welcome, in which he frequently alluded to the enthusiasm manifested in the United States over the victories of the Fatherland during the late war, and at the end proposed three cheers for the visitors, which were given with good will by a large crowd present at the reception.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, July 14.

The Observer anticipates that by the awards to be made by the Geneva Tribunal England will be obliged to pay heavy sums for direct damages, although it believes the total amount will fall several millions below the American estimate.

Parliament will probably be prorogued on the 6th of August.

PREPARATION OF THE BRAZILIAN GOVERNMENT FOR WAR.

LONDON, July 14.

The mail steamer from Rio Janeiro has arrived at Southamton. Brazil has declined to receive Gen. Mitre, plenipotentiary from the Argentine Confederation. The Brazilian government was preparing for hostilities. The arrival of large quantities of munitions of war ordered in Europe, was expected. The dispute with the Argentine States originated in the non-fulfilment of the treaty concerning Paraguay.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

NEW YORK, July 14.

A cholera scare seemed imminent yesterday from the fact that a report had been circulated of deaths from Asiatic Cholera. This was strengthened by a report that the physician who made the postmortem examination declared it a genuine case of the semitic species. Further inquiries and active measures by the health authorities proved it a case of cholera-morbus. The quarantine officials have taken every precaution against the importation of this disease, although they have no cause to expect it.

It is stated that a new federal caucus of the city begins to-morrow.

The notorious dutchHeinrich has gone crazy at Sing Sing Prison, and is to be transferred to the State Insane Asylum at Utica.

Gen. O. O. Howard spoke on Indian affairs this evening at the South Reformed church, Fifth Avenue and Twenty-first street. Addresses were also made by some Indian Chiefs now visiting the city.

Agerman Taylor, residing at Union Hill New Jersey, has sued father Barnard a Catholic Priest for slander, in denouncing him as a fraud and swindler. The damages are laid at $5.000.

Chief of Police Woods of Long Island City, reported missing, has merely been confined to the house from illness.

All the property of the Staten Island R. R. and Ferry Co. will be sold under a foreclosure of mortgages on the 27th of August to satisfy claims of the sufferers by the Westfield explosion.

Dick Risdon, backer of the Ward brothers offers to match Ellis Ward against anyone in the State of New York in a single scull race for $1000 a side, or two of the Wards against any two men in the United States for $1000 a side.

A special from Chicago says Abekleinman beat Bogardus at the pigeon shooting for a purse of $700, killing 92 out of 100 against 90 by Bogardus.

LONG BRANCH ITEMS.

LONG BRANCH, July 13.

Senator Wilson left here this evening for North Carolina. Senator Morton has started for his home in Indiana.

A great crowd assembled at the Ocean Hotel this evening, expecting to see Horace Greeley, who had engaged rooms there.

August Belmont, Daniel Drew, Frank Leslie, Judge Fitch and George Francis Train were in waiting to see Greeley, but were disappointed, Greeley having postponed his visit until next week.

DISASTROUS FIRE—A MOTHER AND SON PERISH IN THE FLAMES.

DETROIT, Mich., July 14.

Last nights fire at Alpena was more disastrous than at first reported. Although the town possesses a steam fire engine, all efforts to stay the progress of the flames were unavailing until they had swept away three and a half blocks of the business portion of the town. Mrs. Westbrook perished in the street in front of her store. George, her son, while endeavoring to save his mother, also perished in the flames. The dead bodies of two men were found in the ruins to-day. A sailor named Kelly, and G. R. Westly were bodily injured. The losses as far as computed foot up to $180.000. Insured about $70.000.

IMMENSE GREELEY AND BROWN RATIFICATION MEETING.

KNOXVILLE, July 14.

An immense Greeley and Brown ratification meeting was held here to-night. Hon. John M. Fleming presided.

Speeches were made by Hon. T. H. R. Nelson, Hon. R. L. Muench and others. Resolutions endorsing the Cincinnati and Baltimore nominations were unanimously adopted.

THE STOKES TRIAL.

NEW YORK, July 13.

An immense crowd was present at the Court to hear the argument of the District Attorney, in the Stokes case to-day, which was resumed at ten o'clock.

In his reply to Stokes' counsel to-day, District Attorney Garvin defined what was murder, dissected the prisoner's plea, said there was no evidence of Fisk's being armed, except that of the harlot, "Josephine Mansfield," to whom he applied the harshest terms.

In concluding, the District Attorney reminded the jury of the gravity of the case. The whole world was looking for their verdict. No men in the world have been so maligned as New York jurors, and he was confident that the men before him would do their duty. If they did not credit any evidence for the prosecution they would not have the case rest on solid basis; but there was ample and abundant proof that this was a case of killing without any provocation.

The prisoner on his way to the Grand Central that afternoon, resolved to lay Fisk low before the sun went down; and he did so. If the streets are not to run in blood, if midnight assassinations are to be checked, a deed like that must not go unpunished. If the prisoner had taken the advice of his poor father and mother, and if he had walked by the side of his pure wife, he would never have taken the life of James Fisk. He would not now be on his trial for murder before you. But by his deeds he must be judged.

This concluded the summing up for the people.

NEW YORK 14.

This Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Edward S. Stokes was brought into court. Judge Ingraham took his place on the bench, and the jury who had been locked in all night, were sent for.

The court was almost as crowded as on week days during the trial. The prisoner looked pretty much as usual, and there was no evidence of his having passed a sleepless night. The jury on the contrary, all looked pale and fatigued. Judge Ingraham addressing the jury, said, "I understand, gentlemen, you have not agreed."

Foreman—"No sir. There is no possibility that we can."

Judge Ingraham—"I hardly feel at liberty to discharge you yet. The case occupied nearly three weeks on trial, and was very fully tried, and the time you have had for consideration has not been very long. I can't see any way of discharging you now."

Foreman—"We stand just the same as before."

Judge—"I do not want to know anything about your decision. I will arrange so that you can send for me at any time, and counsel will be sent for the jury." To their great disappointment they were then locked up again.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, July 14.

The Democratic and Liberal Republican Committees were again in joint conference yesterday, perfecting their arrangements for circulating documents and providing speakers for the campaign.

Secretary Boutwell will not at present attempt to put any more of the new loan on the European market, but will await more favorable circumstances.

The Treasury department officially states that the report that a series of daring and successful frauds upon the general government has been practiced in the matter of the registry of vessels that commenced about the year 1865, is a gross exageration. The total number of vessels of foreign build wrecked, repaired, and admitted to registry, does not exceed 120.

Suits for forfeiture have been demanded against 6 vessels at New York. Out of this number, fourteen more only are reported as suspected.

The record of the Cuban privateer Pioneer, shows that she took out a register on the 30th of March, in New York, showing Lambert Norton of New York to be the sole owner, and L. Norton master, sailing under the name of Resolute. The register, so far as the Treasury department knows, has never been surrendered, and her name never properly changed. If this should prove true, under the act of May 5th, 1854, the vessel is forfeited to the government; that being the penalty for changing the name of the vessel or attempting to conceal it, or deceive any officer or agent of the United States concerning it.

ROBBERY OF PROVIDENCE BANK.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 13.

The residence of E. W. Hayward, Cashier of the Blackstone National Bank at Uxbridge, Mass., was entered this morning, between one and two o'clock, through the chamber window, by five disguised men, who, after binding and gagging Hayward and family, numbering four persons, entered the room of Chas. Wessen, Teller of the Bank, and compelled him to accompany them to the Bank and unlock the safe.

They obtained between $13,000 and $14,000, mostly in bills. The robbers then locked the safe and bank, took the teller back to his room, ungagged the whole family, and gave them water to drink, regagged them, and went away. The condition of the family was discovered about daylight, but the robbers had left no clue to the manner of their departure. A satchel containing fuses, powder and burglars' tools was found near the bank this morning.

SHOOTING AFFRAY BETWEEN AMERICANS IN EGYPT.

ALEXANDRIA, July 12.

A disgraceful affray occurred here yesterday between G. H. Butler, the United States Consul General, and Wadleigh, his secretary, on one part, and Gens. Loring and Reynolds, and Major Campbell, ex-Confederate officers, in the Khedive's service, on the other part.—Shots were exchanged, and Major Campbell wounded.

The affair creates great excitement, and there are various accounts of its origin. Butler's plea in justification of the embroglio is that the Khedive's officers made a premeditated attempt to assassinate them. This the others indignantly deny, and assert that Butler was the aggressor.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.

SAVANNAH, Ga., 14.

Sergeant Robert E. Carr shot and instantly killed Thurmann Jordan at Fort Pulaski last night. Both belonged to the 6th United States artillery. Carr was arrested and lodged in jail.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 12.

A private night watchman, named Sturgeon, deliberately fired upon some boys while bathing last night, killing one of them. He then escaped in a skiff with his wife. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of willful murder.

THE CUBAN WAR.

KEY WEST, July 14.

Files of Havana papers and correspondence to the 12th inst. have been received. The Diario publishes the particulars of the defeat of the Spaniards on the 29th near Holguin, and acknowledges that the Spanish loss was very severe. The victorious Cubans subsequently attacked and burned a portion of the town of Sama.

The fighting commenced at 6 A. M., and continued until 5 P. M. The Cubans were unable to capture the entrenchments, which were defended by 140 Spaniards. The Cubans captured over 100 horses, 200 cattle and other materials. The Spaniards lost 11 killed. The Cuban loss is not given. Spanish Col. Huerta pursued the Cubans, killing several and recapturing 42 horses and cattle, and some war material. Five Spanish battalions are pursuing the Cubans.

Col. Valena has arrived at Santiago De Cuba with 136 rifles, 200 boxes of ammunition, 2 pieces of artillery and a flag. The correspondence of the official bulletin announces 29 members of the Fannies' expedition have been killed. Many rumors are current as to the fate of the expedition. The number of rifles captured is out of all proportion to that shipped in the Fannie.

Captain Gen. Valmaseda delivered up his office to Caballas on the 11th inst. He issued on the occasion a proclamation to the people, saying: "Powerful motives moved me to demand my seperation from the government of the Island. This deprived me of the power of earning the title of pacificator, precisely at the moment when I see that at not a remote period it will be possible to announce to the home government the termination of war, but circumstances are superior to the will of man. The realization of the termination of the war is undoubtedly reserved for my successor. I do not think it possible that the revolution can exist 4 or 5 months longer. It is now becoming prostrate, without resources, with its adherents killed or dispersed, and expeditions which sustained their hopes, captured.

Gen. Ryan arrived at Key West yesterday on the schooner Express from Nassau. He denies the truth of the Spanish statement of the capture of the Fannie's troops, and says no cannon were landed.

SENATOR SUMNER ON GREELEY.

ST. LOUIS, July 14.

The Times to-morrow will publish the following letter from Charles Sumner, addressed to L. M. Revis of this city:

"I think that on reflection you will not think it advisable for me to write a public letter on the matter to which you call attention.

Greeley and myself have been fellow laborers in many things; we were born in the same year, and I honor him very much. Between him and another person who shall be nameless, I am for him earnestly."

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

DAYLESTOWN, Pa. July 14.

The morning train on the North Pensylvania Railroad, shortly after leaving this place this morning, ran over a cow, throwing the engine and two milk cars off the track, down an embankment nearly 30 feet. The fireman was seriously injured, and the engineer, the milk agent, the baggage master and one or two other persons on the cars were somewhat injured.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Bishop J. T. Peck of Syracuse has been dangerously ill, caused by a carbuncle on the back of his neck, but was somewhat better yesterday.

The rules at West Point are so strict this year that the cadets can't make love to the young ladies any more. Flirtation walk has become very gloomy.

The Detroit Free Press will to-day contain the valedictory of its late political editor, and an announcement of a change in the proprietorship. It also pledges itself to support the nomination of the Baltimore Convention.

Two young men, R. K. Wallace and John Mead were drowned in the Chemung River at Elmira yesterday while bathing. A man named William T. Mathison, in a state of somnambulism fell from a second story window and was instantly killed. He was a keeper of a boarding house.

THE DAILY FREEMAN.

CITY OF KINGSTON, (RONDOUT.)

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 15, 1872.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Coal Arrival.

On Wednesday 37 canal boats laden with 4,762 tons of coal reached tide water at Eddyville through the Delaware and Hudson canal.

A Petty Thief.

Some scamp went in Simon Becker's money drawer Friday morning and stole all his cash. Simon's temper is not much disturbed over the affair, if we judge by the genial smile that shone on his face while reading the FREEMAN just after the event.

The Committee of the Whole.

There was an excursion of City Aldermen in Ten Broeck swamp, upper Kingston, Saturday morning, to make inspection and decide whether it would be beneficial to continue North Front street to Manor Place. Hadn't we better fix up the streets we have a little better first?

Thanks.

The "Marine" of the FREEMAN is under many obligations to Captain "Jim" DuBois of the steamer John Dillon, for a delightful sail on Saturday last, during which the before mentioned marine picked up a number of items—but he didn't send "Jim" a box of imported segars—not yet.

Appropriate.

The sentence, "Forsan et haec olim meminisse juvabit," made of evergreens by the Academy scholars, and placed on the wall in rear of the stage at Music Hall for their exhibition, has not yet been taken down. It made a most appropriate motto for Cal Wagner's minstrels on Friday evening. This is not meant to be ironical. The plantation melodies were excellent.

Lively.

The present heated term has had the liveliest kind of an effect on the employees of the different ice companies whose store-houses are in this city and vicinity; they being kept exceedingly busy for the past two weeks in loading barges to supply the almost unsatisfiable demand of ice consumers in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City.

Arrived Safe.

The steamship Olympia, which sailed from New York on the 19th of June for Scotland, arrived safely at Glasco on the 31 of this month. The arrival was not reported to New York, for some unknown reason, until last Friday, which caused some uneasiness to the friends of John E. Van Etten, of Kingston, who sailed on this vessel. Without doubt he is safe and in good health.

Horse Note.

The young stallion Live Oak, which made such good time at Fleetwood Park on Friday, is an Ulster county horse, having been raised by Mat. Perrine, who, for a young man, has owned more good horses than any other man in the county. Live Oak is sired by Stockbridge Chief, and is now owned by Sime Westbrook and T. Connors, and before he changes hands a dollar or two will have to be laid down.

Go Ask Mr. F.

There is a young lady who resides in upper Kingston that has rather an anomalous way of disposing of gentleman callers. This Venus has a favored suitor—whom we shall call F.—who, quite naturally, though somewhat unreasonably, (so say the boys), objects to the presence of other members of the male sex.—A friend of ours went to the house to make a short call the other evening, and imagine his surprise if you can, when he was met at the door and briskly informed, "If you want to call on me you must go and get the permission of Mr. F." Our friend, who generally don't lack boldness, was so taken aback that he actually couldn't utter a word, but stumbled out of the door and went home by the nearest route possible,—and then went to bed.

CITY NOTES.

Morgan Everson has the tug-boat Sammy Cornell out on his sectional docks, putting a new rudder in the boat.

The tug-boats in the creek, in compliance with the new law, have supplied themselves with a life-preserver for each person employed on board.

The South Rondout ferry-house on the opposite side of the creek has lately been remodeled and very much improved, and is brave with white paint and green blinds.

The colored citizens of this city will celebrate Emancipation Day, Thursday, Aug. 1st, by making an excursion to Catskill, the steamer Neversink having been chartered for the occasion.

Wynkoop, of upper Kingston, is making anxious inquiries if the Street Commissioner is lost. A pile of refuse has lain in front of his store for a number of days, and he can't get rid of it.

The upper Kingston 4th of July excursionists are still complaining because they couldn't get anything to eat at Roxbury. We advise all excursionists if they want a good dinner to go to Margaretsville.

The Continental is getting to be quite a favorite resort for the young folks of East Kingston. There is hardly a night passes that they cannot be seen enjoying the cool breezes of the airy rooms and garden.

Some ladies from Ponckhockie who justly appreciate the hospitality and kindness of Captain Jim DuBois, of the steamer Dillon, in giving them a free excursion, some days since, sent him a box of imported segars.

The Delaware & Hudson Canal Company's propeller Rondout, Captain Abram Van Aiken, comes from under the painter's brushes as fair as a rose, and looks as saucy as a young beauty in a Dolly Varden costume.

Forty-seven years ago on Saturday last, and an exceedingly hot day it was, Philip Hone, then the President of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company, broke ground for the canal at Wurtsboro. There are but few men who were in the Company's employ at that time who are alive to-day, and the only one residing in this city, who was a Company servant, is Mr. James S. McEntee, then a young engineer.

Captain Wm. Gurney, who "knows what's what" about schooners, and how to build and sail them, not long since purchased of the Canal Company the barge Delaware, which was years ago a steamboat on the Hudson, and the vessel is now being converted into a schooner at the ship-yard at Kingston Point. The timbers from below her wales are as sound as pump-bolts, and as her ends are sharp she will make a finely-modeled sail craft.

COUNTY.

A lawyer and editor at Ellenville have been on an exploring expedition in the mountain near that village. They found several caves that hitherto have been unknown to man, and tell an interesting story of their exploits, and the beauties that are to be found in the bowels of the Shawangunks.

Good News.

Work on the Wallkill Valley Railroad is rapidly progressing. The track is already laid this side of the residence of Francis Schrowany, a distance of about four miles from Rosendale.

Agency at Saugerties.

Mr. T. J. Barritt is our agent at Saugerties, and will receive all orders for the Daily, and supply by carrier, collecting weekly. Parties wishing the Daily in Saugerties will leave their names with Mr. Barritt.

Sighing.

Saugerties is sighing for a railroad. About every man you meet in its streets wants to know if the Wallkill Valley R. R. isn't coming there. Saugerties is certainly the hardest place to get in or out of in these parts.

Arrivals at the Overlook.

J. S. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Atwater, Mr. and Mrs. D. Lyon and daughter, E. B. Litchfield, New York; Miss Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bon, Hon. Wm. D. Vedder, Hon. F. A. Schroeder and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo State, Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hardenburgh, Brooklyn; Miss Daisey Humphrey, Hon. Israel Lawton, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mulligan, Lewis Decker, Saugerties; W. L. B. Vanarder, North Baltimore; P. Short, Memphis, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCay, Jersey City; G. Schmidt and family, Dobbs Ferry; I. W. Longyear, Mt. Pleasant.

Smart Old Man.

The death of an old man at Wappingers Falls, a few days ago, furnished the conclusion of a novel bargain, in which parties paid more than they calculated. About twenty-five years ago, when the old man was about 80 years old, he was a partner in a manufacturing establishment, which he had started and built up, subsequently taking in two other partners. These latter, after they had got the hang of the business, wanted to shove the old man out, but didn't succeed until they guaranteed to him $1,000 a year until he died. So the old man retired, but lived on. In course of time the younger partners died. Their sons succeeded them, and they too died before the old man, but he continued in the enjoyment of his $1,000 income for years after they were buried, and died 104 years old.

VICINITY.

Unionville ice cream makes partakers thereof sick.

Middletown youth fight out their love quarrels in the prize ring.

Isaac Denniston, living near Vail's Gate, had his leg cut off by a mowing machine on Tuesday.

The Middletown Mercury says the Greeley element there is very strong and a large club is forming.

The highest temperature at the Catskill Mountain House during the "hot spell" was 83 degrees. That's 5 degrees higher than the hottest at the Overlook.

A daughter of Rev. M. W. Staples, the well-known Bible agent, formerly of this District, dropped dead in her chamber at Richmond on the 5th inst., from fright.

"Mill Street Rangers" is the title of a Newburgh gang of rowdies whom the police of that city permit to knock unoffending passers-by about without interference.

Hudson practical jokers tie fish-hooks to the sticks of sky-rockets, fasten the hook to some bystander's hat, and let her fly. The owner of the hat is generally astonished.

An exchange appropriately heads one of its columns "Pickings and Stealings." If all of our neighbors were equally honest the latter part of the title would decorate many papers which we might name.

The Poughkeepsie Eagle publishes a list a column and a half in length of residents of that city absent or expecting to be absent spending the summer elsewhere. Well, we would go somewhere else, too, if we lived in Poughkeepsie.

CORNS are as useless to the community as mischief-making old maids, corner loafers in large cities, or dishonest politicians, no more of a luxury than epsom salts or castor oil, and no more desirable for comfort than a hedge hog is for a parlor ornament. Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies Alleviator and Curative, eradicates corns, vanishes bunions, and cures ingrowing nails, sore insteps, and other obnoxious torments of feet.—Sold by Van Deusen Brothers, R. Deyo and others.

LISTEN. What do you hear? A cough?—What does it indicate? Perhaps a tickle in the throat; perhaps bronchitis; it may be a recent cold; it may be an effort of nature to clear the bronchia; it may be the deep hollow cough, boon companion of that terrible monster consumption.—In either case the free use of Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer, as directed, will banish all kinds of Cough, cure Bronchitis certain, and all the early symptoms of Consumption. Sold by Van Deusen Brothers, R. Deyo and others.

$1000 Reward for an incurable case of Catarrh. After having suffered, deluged, gargled, hawked, spit and gagged to your entire satisfaction in useless endeavors to get relief from Catarrh, use Briggs' Allevantor, according to directions. The filthy mass of mucous will be immediately expelled, the inflamed surface soothed, the eyes sparkle with delight, the head feels natural again; hope revives, for a cure is sure to follow the use of this agreeable, scientific and reliable remedy. Sold by Van Deusen Bros., R. Deyo and others.

CORNS Let them ache, cut your boots, curse them and make up your mind that you can endure their torments as long as they can torment you, but take the advice of an old chap who has tried it, but got worsted by the corns. They are worse than a coon in a barrel; never surrender, but fight it out on that line summer and winter. Corns, bunions, ingrowing nails and other such pleasant little pets, are gathered into the relief kitchen, by using Briggs' corn and bunion remedies, Alleviator and Curative. Sold by Van Deusen Bros., R. Deyo and others.

PILES It is a simple word, but carries terror to the hearts of those who have dragged out a miserable existence for days, weeks, months or years, and who can describe their sufferings only by saying, "Life has no pleasure for me; if I were only out of my misery, what a blessing it would be." Let such sufferers cheer up, the messenger of peace is on the wing. Briggs' Pile Remedies have come—try them. They are to those afflicted with internal, bleeding, external and itching piles, indeed a blessing. Sold by Van Deusen Bros., R. Deyo and others.

CORNS, Bunions, Toe Nails, Tender Feet, &c., also Piles, Cancerous and Scrofulous Humors, Skin Diseases, &c., skillfully and successfully treated by DR. J. BRIGGS & CO., of the Great Central Healing and Chiropodical Institute, No. 697 Broadway, N. Y. Open day and evening. 1yd225 1yw689.
